Monumental Moments: PP John Schubert

John Schubert demonstrating the Archimedes drill & being thanked by chair Brad Silby

It is amazing how, in the course of a Rotary year, the best speakers are our own members. This is particularly true of John Schubert who spoke to us of his working life as a monumental mason.

Particularly fascinating was his demonstration of some of the tools of his trade, some of which most of us had never heard of. Take the Archimedes drill, pictured above with John, and the feathers and plug, see p3, both of which are used to make holes in marble.

Working in stone is one of the oldest trades. John showed us chisels, sharps, mallets and drills that had been used for centuries.

In the good old days - inscriptions were pencilled on to a headstone then scratch lines would be used to square the letter before it was attacked with a hammer and chisel.

The 1980's saw the introduction of the two things that brought major change to the industry.

Diamonds and Computers. Industrial diamond tipped saw blades, drills and polishing pads cut the production time of manufacturing dramatically.

Computers are now used for setting up, viewing and cutting inscriptions and the artwork for headstones.

John gave us a potted history of his family and how the Schuberts became stone masons at 179 Finders St.

They are now into the fifth generation and proudly remain one of South Australia's oldest family businesses.

There was plenty of humour: eg some headstone inscriptions:

1.to the memory of Colonel William Henry Barrington-Smythe, who served with his regiment in India for 45 years, accidentally shot by his Batman..... Well done thou good and faithful servant.

2.Spinster Myrtle Jones, who died at the age of three score and ten. She gave to the worms what she denied to men.

John's final statement:

"We must be careful not to describe the installing of the headstones as "monumental erections".

Brad was a good chair. He concluded with the fact that it was stonemasons who bought the 8hr day to Australia!

Notices for meeting # 2093:

President Neville:

Pres Neville began the meeting by welcoming our guests: Mori & Lorraine Harvey from Melbourne, friends of both the Neales and Dave Richards, Bryn Schern, who will soon be joining us and partners Pat Reddy & Shirley Neale.

The District Changeover from Malcolm Lindquist to Bruce Ricardson will occur on 24th June at the Berri Hotel.

Directors need to present their requests to the Treasurer so that the year can be finalised.

Humanity in Motion, a magazine produced by RDU, features this club. At approximately $5 each these will make great coffee table items. Contact incoming Secretary John if you would like a personal copy.

Secretary Mary

1.RC St Peters will be holding a fun fashion show: "The Rotary Clothesline" on Sat 16 July at 7:30 pm. All proceeds to the Centacare Disability Services, assisting and counselling children and adults with intellectual disability. This fun evening will showcase clothing donated to the club.

A fun night for $10.

2.Want a fun makeup?

On 20th August the 50th anniversary of the famous "Henley on Todd" regatta will be held in Alice Springs. Organisers from the RC Stuart NT have invited Rotarians from all parts of Australia and NZ to form a team to participate in this exciting and challenging event. Info from

www.henleyontodd.com.au

3.Read page 6 of RDU. The new editor from 1 July is Mark Wallace with current editor, Bob Aitken, taking on a new role in RDU business and public awareness.

4.Mary awarded 'prizes' to two directors for getting their reports in on time.

1st to Lynton Nicholas

2nd to Jan Tsoutouras

Dean Flemming

In coming treasurer Dean, announced that subs for the coming year will be $195.

Meal cost will be $19.

Dean announced that he will assess whether those who are attending meetings are subsidizing those who are not.

Brian Stevens: Shed CEO

Things have been very quiet in the last two pick ups. We have been down to Paramount Browns, with Eric giving the money towards this month's efforts.

The shelving has arrived for the revamp of the Shed layout, with work commencing on 27th June. Lots of help would be good.

A sunny day is forecast for our June shed sale this Saturday. This is our last sale for this Rotary year. Let's make it a good one.

Stevo: 0413 430 025

Fellowship: Lynton Nicholas

All is in hand for a good changeover meeting at the Marche Club on 4th July.

President Neville's Thought for the week:
There is no monument dedicated to the memory of a committee.
Lester Pourciau

Almoner: Peter Allen

- Betty Elsdon has broken her ankle, and is in a wheelchair. Duncan is a wonderful nurse.
- Milton Lewis's sister in law died last week. The funeral was today.

Tony Uren: Golf weekend report

Tony summarised the fun weekend as follows,

- 1.Geoff Brett over trained and performed poorly
- 2.Peter Rumbelow had the best buggy
- 3.Ian Reddy wouldn't show his form
- 4.Stevo performed best after the game
- 5.Lynton Nicholas talked too much
- 6.David Munro slept in, kept every one waiting then won the game with 38 points. This despite the fact that he fell asleep while doing his back swing. See Jessica's cartoon, p 3.

Rotary Information: Frank Augello

Frank told us about one aspect of Rotary International of which we may not be aware.

RI appoints representatives each year to UN bodies and organisations worldwide.

These reps meet regularly with officers and staff from international agencies to

1. Discuss parallel concerns and potential areas of cooperation
2. Inform organisations about Rotary programs
3. Gather information about other groups developments and programs.

RI and the UN have a long history of working together and sharing similar visions for a more peaceful world. In 1942 Rotary clubs from 21 nations organised a conference in London to develop a vision for advancing education, science and culture after WWII. That event was a precursor to UNESCO.

In 1945, 49 Rotarians went to San Francisco to help draft the UN Charter. Rotary and the UN have been close partners ever since.

In Tanzania, villagers buy mosquito nets through a Rotarian-supported program that aligns with the United Nations' goal to reduce malaria. In Kenya, families build Rotarian-funded rainwater collection tanks, complementing UN efforts to prevent deaths, especially among children, linked to poor sanitation. In Romania, farmers receive heifers through an effort backed by a Rotary Foundation grant

Plan now to attend the District Conference: 26-29 April 2012

Mildura welcomes all Rotarians

District Governor Elect Bruce Richardson and Kathy, and the members of the Rotary Club of Berri extend an invitation to all District 9520 Rotarians and partners to travel to Mildura in 2012 to join them at the next District Conference to be held in The Setts Function Centre, 110 Eighth Street, Mildura.

Mildura possesses extensive accommodation options and excellent transport links and services. It is the contrast between outback solitude and the celebrations of a vibrant culture that is sure to impress during your stay.

Book early to secure your accommodation.

that goes hand in hand with the UN goal to fight hunger.

New Generations: RYLA

24-30 September 2011

Our club is hosting RYLA @ Nunyara for 18-25 yr olds to give up a week of their life for the benefit of the rest of their life.

Please start now encouraging anyone you know who could benefit from this great leadership program.
