- Each Rotarian will be given a calendar and asked to sell a further four at $5 each.
- The calendars make a great gift and are a good advertisement for the Club.

Rose op't Hoog

Peter Liepins

Rose has come through the operation successfully and has already been up and moving around, albeit, attached to tubes and other medical impedimenta. She should be home soon.

New Generations

Peter Liepins

The Board is considering re-introducing Long Term Youth Exchange and/or Short Term Youth Exchange. The cost to the Club is about $10 000 for each LTYE student. Members are asked to think about the issue.

Rotary Foundation Dinner

Peter Liepins

Peter was one of our three members to attend the Foundation Dinner run by the Mildura South Club, and attended by thirty to forty Rotarians.

The major topic was the End Polio Now project and the difficulties of eradicating it from the four remaining countries. It was encouraging that the recent CHOGM conference made a commitment to assist.

Vegas Night

Vince Congiusta

The Vegas Night is on again, on February 19, next.

Thanks to the ~~three~~... ~~five~~... six members who volunteered to help organise the evening.

Rotary Spot

Robert Metcalfe

Robert reminded us that the Club is one big team but made up of smaller teams. Each team, from the Board to the smallest committee, has its own goals and objectives. It is important that we all pull together so that the Club can achieve its goals and survive usefully for many years.

Sergeant-at-Arms

Sgt Gary was fined for doing a fine job in Craig's absence.

Jim Kane was fined to celebrate his 40 years in Rotary.
