FOR THE GOOD OF ROTARY

John Jackson sent around a dodger for the Community Services Bowls Night at Marion Shopping Centre on 15th June.

Sir Russell Eccleston brought us up to date on John Lewis recovery from his motor bike accident. He needs to rest to allow his knee to recover.

Jeff Hunter promoted the District Conference from 7th to 10th October 2010

Bob Richter advised he would be circulating a dodger at next week's meeting to gather names for the Art Show roster

Bob Lehmann asked all club members to sell, sell, sell tickets for the Best of Broadway Show.

Bob Arnold backed up Bob Lehmann's plea to sell, sell, sell tickets for the Best of Broadway Show. Tickets sales are slow and he is concerned that we might run the show at a loss. The show has been well advertised in the Messenger Press, but the support of all Rotarians in the club is needed get people to buy tickets

Bob Lehmann has secured 2 car services worth $250.00 each as raffle prizes. More prizes are needed

Tony Hughes attended the Blackwood High School Business Studies presentations. Students have to run a business for 6 months. Some examples of the businesses included:

- Sam's Lawn Care
- Novelty Key Rings
- Window Cleaning Service
- Sausage Sizzle
- Flowers for staff
- Celebration Shot Glasses

Tony spoke to teachers about Rotary projects and he may have a number of applicants for the National Youth Science Forum.

Bob Lehmann (outstripping Bob Arnold for announcements for a change) announced Nua Hasana is due to have another operation. Nua is 20 years old now, so she will be operated on at the RAH. The Rotary Club of Morreset has donated $1000.00 for her care and Bob has asked the Blackwood club to do the same. Bob and Marlene will be looking after Nua while she is in Adelaide.

Robyn Venus announced the Rotary Club of Noarlunga is hosting their handover dinner on 3rd July 2010.

Terry Tierney reported the wood sales would be happening each Sunday for a while. This has been advertised in the Messenger Press. There is more wood available at Parawa which Terry needs help to collect.

Robyn Venus asked club Directors to forward their reports to her asap for the Annual Report. Jeff Hunter advised the club that Roy Armstrong from the Rotary Club of Marion and AG group 6 have been nominated for the position of DG 2012 – 2013. Challenges to this recommendation can be made to the Governor by 15 May 2010.
