BIRTHDAY AND ANNIVERSARIES

Congratulations to PP John and Jean Howie who will be celebrating their wedding anniversary on Sunday, 3rd September. To you both have a great day.

OPERATION

PP Max was to have had his thyroid operation last Wednesday but was on the table and prepared for it but it could not go ahead because they did not have a high dependency bed available just in case of complications. So it will have to be reschedule for a later date. Also PP Max and Helen are awaiting the birth of a new grandchild in the immediate future. We hope that all goes well for the happy couple and grandparents.

MAX'S TRIVIA

18th century British Naval tradition was sailors were to plait their long hair into pigtails. These they stiffened and made shiny with grease and oakum. To protect their uniforms from the fatty plait they used to wear a large handkerchief outside their jacket with one corner hanging down under the pigtail. The detachable collars is now part of the regular uniform.

My family and I have spent the week relaxing, taking roadtrips and getting our bodies scrubbed in a Turkish bath. The beach here isn't too bad either—but nothing compares to the AU beaches!
