JUST A THOUGHT

Ideals are like stars

You will not succeed in touching them
with your own hands

But you can choose them as your guides and follow them to reach your destiny.

LAST MEETING: was a low key 47th club's birthday celebration. President David was in the chair and the usual formalities were conducted. President David welcomed everyone to the meeting and members introduced their guests.

PP Max Law conducted the fine session and extracted money from the members for any misdoings that they had done.

The club had a birthday cake and we sang happy birthday to ourselves.

International Service Report: Director PP Neil Houlton

PP Neil read out an email received from Frank Portelli Chairman of the Youth Exchange Committee for District 9690 it said:

Dear Neil,

I wanted to thank the Rotary Club of Cabramatta for their continued support of the Youth Exchange Programme and what it stands for, the development of peace, goodwill and international understanding between Australian youth and the youth of other nations.

Your club has shown a commitment that other larger clubs should be envious of in the support of our youth who one day may be our leaders of the future.

Yours in Rotary

Frank

Chairman—District 9690
