Max's Trivia

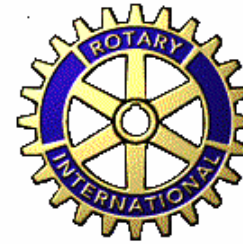

During the 19th century “old west” in USA hay bales for the cattle were held together with wire, which, when thrown out could cause damage to animals including cattle. When removed, cowboys bunched it up and it was out of shape—haywire—anything out of shape.

Many years ago an Officer captured by the enemy could buy his freedom, but only in cash. The amount was fixed to a quarter of his annual pay. People continue to “give quarters” to a guilty person, treating leniently someone who deserves worse.

HONESTY

Before us lie two paths—honesty or dishonesty.
The ignorant embark on the dishonest path: the wise on the honest. For in helping others, you help yourself: in hurting others, you hurt yourself.
Those who remain honest know the truth: character overshadows money, trust rises above fame. And honesty is still the best policy.
