LAST WEEK

We had the pleasure of hearing from our Rotary colleague, Gareth Wilding-Forbes, who spoke at length about his acting career.

Born into a theatrical family, his career has covered radio television, acting and directing,

He has appeared in award-winning productions in London and spoke highly of well-known actors, dancers and directors with whom he associated over many years during his theatrical career.

He has fond memories of his friendship with the late Paul Eddington, who appears as The Right Honorable Jim Hacker MP in "Yes Minister" and Yes Prime Minister", still being rerun and enjoyed by Australian television audiences.

Gareth has worked for the ABC, Channel Ten, and Melbourne radio stations 3AW, 3AK and 3UZ.

Currently, he has a weekly program called Lunchtime Entertainment - Noon to 2.00pm Mondays on 89.1 Radio Blue Mountains.

Rotary in Action

Another successful "Million Paws Walk" at Katoomba's Melrose Park

More than 150 dogs registered for the "Walk" on May 20 and they brought along about 400 minders who kept us cooking and serving food and drinks at a great rate.

An excellent community service project. Great local exposure for our catering van. Many Rotarians turned up to help. ... and we have been booked already for next year.

Proceeds, after expenses, will be donated to the RSPCA Blue Mountains branch.

Springwood Rotary

has organised an Antiques and Collectables Fair at Springwood High School, Faulconbridge on Saturday and Sunday, June 2 and 3.

9.00am-4.00pm Sat - 10.00am-3.00pm Sun

(Pensioner concession available)

The club is also proposing to erect a ShelterBox tent and encourage people to donate to this great humanitarian Rotary project
