REPORTS

Last week Club members and guests were addressed by Philip Kelly whose topic was resettlement of refugee families in Tasmania. He explained that Government funding for providing support to refugee families was diminishing due to the global economic crisis. The Government was, therefore, looking to local service clubs to take more of an interest in resettling refugee families and helping them in the longer term to assimilate to our culture. Presently, Tasmania is receiving refugees from Bhutan and Burma.

President Colin Heron welcomed our visitors, partners and DG Michael Perkins.

Michael addressed the assembly on plans for and the merits of the forthcoming District Conference (20-22 March). He encouraged everyone to try to attend as it is always a rewarding experience for those who do attend.

Geoff Breen presented his Club's banner to President Colin Heron and received our Club's banner in return.

Activities which the Club intends to try to support include RYLA and RYDA

Volunteers are still needed for the next K&D BBQ .

Bill's boy meets girl joke for this week.

He: Can I have your name?

She: Why? Don't you have one?
